MOVE UPS

SECTION 1. Moving Up, Lateral Moves, Moving Down

1. Any dog completing a Novice, Open, Senior, or Master title may opt to either move up to the A class at the next level (for Novice through Senior) or move laterally into the B class at the level in which they just attained their title, and thus become eligible for Level X titles. Dogs also may move down and enter any B level class they are eligible to enter. As an example, a dog attaining a Senior title from Senior A (RATS) may choose to move up to Master A, laterally to Senior B, or down to either Novice B or Open B.
 - a) Once in Master B, the type of qualifying score is determined by time and by current title level. See Section 6. Master Barn Hunt (RATM, RATCH, RATCHX), page 34.
 - b) Dogs may enter only one class level per Event. If the Club allows move-ups, a dog finishing a title from the A class may move either laterally into the B class at the same level, or up to the A class at the next level.
 - c) Dogs cannot enter multiple classes in the same Trial {i.e., a dog cannot be entered in both Novice B and Open A at the same Trial}.
 - d) Dogs cannot be entered in a class they are not yet eligible to enter.
 - e) Dogs cannot move down during an Event, but may move down at the next Event they enter.
